

The Lunenburg Historical Commission met on October 12th for the month's meeting at the Ritter building. Members Mcgrath, Lakso, and Boussom were in attendance. With a quorum, the meeting started at 7:00 PM.

Minutes for the June meeting were reviewed and accepted.

There was no correspondence or public comment.

The letter of intent has been drafted for the town survey, and needs to be signed by the chair and then sent to the Mass historical commission.

Still no updates on the cemeteries, but the plan for North Cemetery is to trim the front hedges, fix the existing stone walls, and install a new stone wall along the street side. Chairman Mcgrath is to talk to the cemetery commission to figure out where to go from there.

APDC is considering adding a $300 fee to deter demolition by neglect, as there currently aren't any significant deterrents in place.

The Town hall renovation bid came in over budget, so that project will not happen this year.

A new brochure is being designed for the Architectural preservation district of Lunenburg, in hopes of drawing more awareness to the importance of it and the work being done to preserve it.

No update on Hometown heroes, so hopefully it will be discussed at the next meeting.

With no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 7:21.
